"I love the character customization options for this game, from equipping various gear to choosing your character's appearance and voice. It gives the opportunity to play how you want to play. I can't help but feel this is the direction games are heading. With thoughtful and flavorful concepts, you can customize your gameplay experience within the framework of the game. The aspect that I couldn't help but like most is the online gameplay. The leveling system combined with the in-game communication makes the game flow better." via downloadOtaku "I've never enjoyed playing an ARPG so much as this one. Character creation options are generous enough to make their own, while still keeping the game system interesting and varied. Combat is dynamic, and has a distinct lack of getting stuck in the same place for too long. I'm keeping an eye out for future updates, not only to keep up with any balance changes, but to see if there are any more surprises." via GameSpot.com "The game is great. It's unique and it's also incredibly fun. The story is more than you can expect from a free to play game, which is a good thing. You never run out of fun new quests to do either." via Steam "The Elden Ring RPG proved to be the perfect ARPG... It pulls off many things well, but perhaps its greatest feat was the one it achieves so rarely in the industry: It is fun. The ability to fashion your own ARPG is exciting and empowering, and the addition of multiplayer makes this game more fun than a barrel of fun." via GameSpot.com THE ELDEN RING ACTION RPG GAMEPLAY SYSTEM. It would be a small compact building complete with a door, window, a sink and a toilet (great for the bathroom) and a chest in the bedroom, a full wall mirror in the hall, a table, lamp and bed (for sitting, working etc.). On the floor tile would be the rustic and simple un patterned rug that we see in many games. Does anyone else think this is a nice idea? If you do, please post and rate. (Yes, it's nice if it's inspired by a real place or series.) Thanks in advance, Ondra and Emeko 12,158 906,197 Fantasy Community Last Updated 265 comments Ug, I'm still thinking of the Home "like" and and "craft" options. Really like the "Color Change" though, amazing concept. If you have a Home "like" and "Craft" option it would make it easier for PC players to make the project. Either that or I should make it as a mod for that particular WOW Importer. Coming from the Age of Empires perspective: Option A: Bring back a simple round Home/Craft "hold-like" Option B: Bring back a rounded Home/Craft "hold-like" but Moveable Option C: Bring back a round Home/Craft "hold-like"
